

Diana de Alvaré

Music Teacher

Mrs. Diana de Alvaré, is in her 4th year teaching music at St. Joseph Regional Catholic School (2016-2017). She also teaches music at Sacred Heart School in Hampton and St. Patrick's School in Portsmouth.

Mrs. de Alvaré is originally from Nebraska. She got her Bachelor's in Music Education at University of Nebraska-Lincoln, and her primary instrument is her voice. After college, she taught music at St. Vincent de Paul Catholic School in Seward, Nebraska. She and her husband moved to New Hampshire in 2013 and settled in Dover.

Mrs. de Alvaré is also an active member of Corpus Christi Parish in Portsmouth, where she is a cantor and a member of the choir. She is a member of Portsmouth Pro Musica Choir, where she is on the board of directors and soprano section leader, and directs and sings in the a capella group, "The Overtones" (an offshoot of Pro Musica). She is also a member of New Hampshire Music Educators Association and National Association for Music Education.

When she is not singing or at school, Mrs. de Alvaré enjoys crocheting and playing board games with her husband and friends.

St. Joseph Regional Catholic School (SJRCs) of Salem, NH, provides a complete education designed to challenge and motivate all students from Pre-K to Grade 8 to reach their full potential in mind, spirit, heart, and body. With Saint Joseph, the foster father of Jesus, as a model, SJRCs values its partnership with parents in the development of their children. The school's strong academic program, which is integrated with Christian values, promotes critical thinking and prepares students to succeed in their future educational pursuits, to practice good citizenship, and to be productive members of a global society. Welcoming students of all faiths in Southern NH and the Merrimack Valley, SJRCs is dedicated to maintaining a safe, caring, and respectful Catholic community in which each child's God-given talents are developed, nurtured, and challenged.
